HOME DEPARTMENT.

The present number completes the sixteenth volume of the Democrat, and the seventh under its present management. No paper will be issued next week. The first number of the new volume will be issued on Wednesday, Jan. 3d, 1866, under the title of "The Geauga Democrat," and in much enlarged form. With the enlargement and other improvements, we intend to make this one of the very best of coun- oysters and other luxuries for the Holitry papers.
